Section 2501. PREAMBLE AND PURPOSE. We, the People of the State of Idaho, find that the doctrine of judicial immunity has been greatly abused; that no effective remedy to redress judicial misconduct exists; that the right of the writ of habeas corpus in many cases is effectively suspended; that the Idaho Judicial Council has offered a less than one percent chance for formal action being taken to remedy judicial misconduct to the people of Idaho and many have, and continue, to suffer from the results of a judiciary which is not held accountable to the people; therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist in fact. We the People of Idaho, in whom all political power is inherent; and for whom government is instituted for our equal protection and benefit; and who have the right to alter, reform or abolish the same whenever we deem it necessary; as declared by Article One, Section Two of the Idaho Constitution; we therefore establish by Initiative this Act for our immediate protection and for the benefit of our posterity so as to insure judicial accountability and justice.

Section 2502. AUTHORITIES. In accordance with Idaho Constitutional provisions, Article 1, Sections 1, 2, 5 and 18; Article V, Sections 7, 18, 27 and 28; Article VII, Section 10, the Constitution for the United States of America, including the Bill of Rights; and in accordance and harmony with the Declaration of Independence; We the People of Idaho hereby act to establish and insure judicial accountability with the provisions herein which shall be known hereafter as "The Idaho Judicial Accountability Act of 2006 ," referred to hereafter as the "Act".

Section 2503. REPEAL OF ACT CREATING IDAHO JUDICIAL COUNCIL. This Act creating the Idaho Judicial Council, relating to removal, discipline and retirement of judicial officers, Idaho Code Title 1, Chapter 21, Sections 2101 – 2104 is hereby repealed in its entirety, as a matter of right and necessity to abolish an entity of government which does not serve the people, nor provide for their equal protection or benefit. Further, all records held by the Idaho Judicial Council, upon passage of this Act, shall be preserved and delivered to the custody of the Idaho Judicial Accountability Commission within thirty (30) days after it is seated; and thereafter said records shall be maintained by the Clerk of the Idaho Judicial Accountability Commission.

Section 2504. DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY. Judicial accountability being nearly nonexistent in the State of Idaho, which has subjected many citizens of Idaho to be deprived of life, liberty and property, without due process of law; and otherwise deprived of their Rights; therefore, an emergency is hereby declared to exist. This Act upon certification of its passage and approval by the voters and electors of Idaho shall immediately be in full force and effect.

The Idaho Judicial Accountability Rules shall be promulgated in similarity to the Idaho Administrative Procedures Act (IDAPA, Idaho Code, Title 67, Sections 5240, et. Seq.). Printed copies shall be made available to the public within 60 days of this Act. Copies shall continuously be available at no cost, at locations including but not limited to: the Office(s) of the IJAC; all county Courthouses; the Office of the Idaho Supreme Court; Idaho State law libraries; state prisons, county jails and other detainment facilities; all State Agency offices which conduct administrative hearings of contested cases; State of Idaho Offices of the Governor, the Secretary of State, the Attorney General; and the State Legislative Services office.

Section 2534. INTERNAL OPERATIONS OF THE IJAC. The IJAC shall establish Internal Operations Rules governing the internal administration of the IJAC, its employees and contractors. Such Internal Operations Rules may include, but not be limited to, procedures for processing complaints, petitions and cases, provisions for internal discipline and the removal, recusal, death or resignation of IJAC Commissioners; and other operational matters as deemed necessary and/or appropriate.

Section 2535. COMPLAINT PROCEDURES. Any person may file a civil and/or criminal complaint with the IJAC alleging judicial misconduct, pursuant to the procedures and limitations of this Act and/or the Idaho Judicial Accountability Rules. The IJAC shall serve a copy of the filed complaint upon the complained of judicial officer and notice to the complainant of such service within five (5) days of receiving the complaint. A complaint served upon any judicial officer shall not act as an automatic recusal/disqualification order or stay of proceedings; a submitted complaint and investigation procedure is separate from other court activity, and litigants must observe and respond to all court deadline dates and pleadings. A judicial officer shall have twenty days to serve and file an answer to the complaint. The complainant shall thereafter have fifteen days to file an optional reply to the judicial officer's answer. The IJAC shall determine the causes properly before it with its reasoned findings in a written decision within ninety (90) calendar days after the last complaint, answer or reply is filed, and serve upon all parties its decision to grant or deny immunity as a defense in any civil action that may thereafter be pursued against the judicial officer, and/or whether or not probable cause is found of criminal activity by any judicial officer, as alleged. Prosecution of any civil case, in which the IJAC's decision has denied a judicial officer an immunity defense, shall be the responsibility of the complainant, in any appropriate court of Idaho.

There shall be an additional three (3) days allowed for the mailing of any answer or reply. Upon timely request, the IJAC may provide for reasonable extensions of time, for good cause. Copies of all records and proceedings of the IJAC shall be available and open to the public after there has been a disposition of each case.

The IJAC shall have the power to conduct hearings of matters properly brought before the IJAC and to subpoena and examine persons under oath and request further information from any party.

All complaint allegations shall be liberally construed in the favor of the complainant, as a preliminary hearing to determine the merits of the case before the IJAC, which shall be further subject to being proven in a separate tribunal. A simple majority of the IJAC votes shall determine any matter. The IJAC shall be empowered to accept and submit stipulations in order to effect a timely, cost effective remedy in any matter at any time before the IJAC renders its final decision. A complainant may withdraw their case before the IJAC by giving written notice to the Clerk of the IJAC, or by oral notice at any hearing held by the IJAC. The Clerk of the IJAC shall then notify the defendant(s) of the complainant's withdrawal of their case.

Section 2536. FRIVOLOUS OR HARASSING FILINGS. Any Complainant found by the IJAC to have filed a frivolous or harassing action against any judicial officers may be subject to an order or decision against the complainant by the IJAC which may include a fine up to one thousand dollars ($1,000). Any judicial officer who is exonerated by an IJAC investigation may request the complainant reimburse the judicial officer's expenses that were actually incurred in their defense, not to exceed one-thousand dollars ($1,000). This section shall not be a bar to any suit filed by a judicial officer against a complainant for harassment.

Section 2537. CORRECTIVE ACTION – REMOVAL – FORFEITURE OF BENEFITS. The IJAC is hereby vested with power and authority to assess "strikes" against any judicial officer as defined in subsection 2505(f) of this Act. The IJAC shall issue an Order removing any judicial officer, immediately and permanently, from office, when said judicial officer has received three strikes against him/her. Whenever the IJAC becomes aware that a judicial officer has had an adverse civil or criminal decision against them, the IJAC shall review the decision to determine if it constitutes a "strike" and whether there have been three "strikes" against that judicial officer. "Strikes" shall be assessed by a simple majority vote of the IJAC. Thereafter, that judicial officer shall be ineligible to hold any State judicial office, including that of pro tem or senior judge. Whenever any judicial officer who has two strikes assessed against him/her, and, a civil or criminal complaint has been filed, which may result in a third strike, the said judicial officer shall notify the administrative judge of their judicial district, who thereafter shall modify the docket of said judicial officer so as to minimize any potential inconvenience to parties with pending actions, in the event the judicial officer receives a third strike. Upon a judicial officer receiving vindication of the pending third strike, he/she may return to full duty. If, the said judicial officer is a prosecutor, he/she shall, instead, notify their supervising authority, or the authority charged to appoint their replacement of the pending possible third strike.

Retirement benefits for any removed judicial officer shall not exceed one-half of the benefits that such person would have otherwise been entitled. One-half of any judicial officer's retirement benefits shall be forfeited to the IJAC, with an equal payment made to the Clerk of the IJAC not later than ten (10) business days after the judicial officer is sent any retirement benefit payment. Early retirement shall not avert a third-strike penalty. Retirement benefit forfeitures received by the Clerk of the IJAC shall be transferred to the Idaho Judicial Accountability Trust Fund as provided by subsection 2526(3) of this Act. Retirement benefit forfeitures under this Act are limited to benefits accrued as a judicial officer. Benefits accrued from sources other than public service as a judicial officer are not subject to the provisions of this Act.

The IJAC shall provide reports of IJAC activity to the Offices of the Idaho Governor and the Idaho Supreme Court yearly, including the names of judicial officers who have received one or more strikes against them. The Clerk of the IJAC shall maintain a record of judicial officers who have received a "strike" or "strikes" against them, including the number and cause of said strike(s). The IJAC shall notify the Office of the Idaho Governor, the Administrator of the judicial district where the affected judicial officer is from and the Idaho Supreme Court within five (5) days after any judicial officer has been ordered removed from office.

Section 2538. CRIMINAL COMPLAINT PROCEDURES. In addition to any other provision of this Act, a complaint for criminal conduct of a judicial officer may be brought directly to the IJAC upon all the following prerequisites: (1) a criminal complaint has been lodged with the appropriate prosecutorial entity or court, for the alleged misconduct; (2) the prosecutor declines to prosecute, or ninety (90) days has passed following the lodging of such complaint and prosecution has not commenced; and (3) an indictment, if sought, has not been specifically declined on the merits by a Grand Jury.

Section 2539. CRIMINAL CAUSES. Should the IJAC find probable cause of criminal conduct on the part of any judicial officer against whom a complaint is docketed, it shall have the power to forward the complaint to a special trial court, except where double jeopardy protections apply. Further, the IJAC shall select a special prosecutor and a judge from a county other than that of the defendant judicial officer. The special trial court shall have the power to call special trial jurors to be empanelled from the county in which the offense occurred; or, if a change of venue is approved by the trial judge, jurors shall be empanelled from the county where the case is to be tried. The special trial jurors, plus alternates, shall be chosen, without peremptory challenges, and with voir dire limited to challenges for a personal relationship with any party in the case. Special trial jurors shall be selected from the same pool of jury candidates as any regular jury, and the trial jurors shall be instructed that they have power to judge both law and fact. Further, no person shall be compelled to serve as a special trial juror. Jurors shall be compensated pursuant to Idaho Code 2-215 (3) or Idaho Code 19-3945, whichever is applicable, plus any reasonable per diem costs and/or transportation costs. The special prosecutor shall prosecute the cause to a conclusion, having all the powers of any other prosecutor within this State. Upon conviction, the special trial jury shall have exclusive power of sentencing, limited to incarcerations, fines and/or community service. Each trial juror shall determine the sentence they would impose, but no sentence imposed by any special trial juror shall exceed the statutory maximum allowed for the crime(s) for which the judicial officer was convicted. The actual sentence imposed on the defendant judicial officer shall be derived by an average of the sentences imposed by each juror.

Section 2540. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. There shall be no statute of limitations limiting the time in which a complaint for judicial misconduct can be filed with the IJAC. No complaint shall be considered by the IJAC unless the complainant shall have first attempted to remedy the conduct complained of in the venue where it occurred. Attempts to remedy judicial misconduct shall include but not be limited to motions or petitions for relief, appeals and habeas corpus petitions. A party filing a document in a court previous to the enactment of this Act, which states with particular reason(s) why they will not be seeking further relief and/or why they have no confidence in any further proceedings to obtain any just remedy, shall be deemed as an attempt to obtain remedy for the purposes of this section.

A complainant may file a complaint for judicial misconduct which occurred prior to the enactment of this Act; however, no complaint for judicial misconduct shall be brought for act(s) or omission(s) that were not illegal or contrary to the mandates of the Constitution(s) at the time they occurred.

Within 180 days from receiving notice of the IJAC's final decision, which denies a judicial officer immunity as a defense in a civil action, the Complainant who filed the complaint with the IJAC must either begin or continue prosecution of his/her civil case. Failure to comply with this statute of limitations, shall be grounds for dismissal of a civil case, unless: a petition is filed for an extension of time; and good cause is shown why the statute of limitations should be extended; and the IJAC, after consideration, votes to extend it.

Section 2541. PUBLIC INDEMNIFICATION. No judicial officer complained of, or sued civilly by a complainant pursuant to this Act shall be defended at public expense; or from any publicly funded indemnity or insurance fund; or by any elected or appointed public counsel in any proceeding before the IJAC; nor shall any judicial officer be reimbursed from public funds for any losses sustained under this Act.

Section 2542. JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THIS ACT. Every judicial officer after passage of this Act, shall provide a notice which shall appear at the end of every judicial 'Order, Decision, Judgment or Sentence', which clearly states that: "Any party who believes a judicial officer has committed any act of judicial misconduct may file a complaint pursuant to the Idaho Judicial Accountability Act of 2006, (Idaho Code, Title 1, Sections 2501 et. seq.)". Said notice shall also include the phone number and address of the IJAC office.

Section 2543. QUALIFIED IMMUNITY OF IJAC ACTIONS. Persons carrying out duties under this Act, and/or at the direction of the IJAC, shall receive immunity from all liability, civilly or criminally, and shall not be held in contempt by any court authority, except for intentional violations of clearly established law, or the Idaho Judicial Accountability Rules (IJAR).

Section 2544. OTHER REDRESS. The provisions of this Act are in addition to other redress that may exist and are not mutually exclusive, except where double jeopardy protections apply.

Section 2545. TEMPORARY IMMUNITY. The IJAC shall be vested with power and authority, in the interest of justice, to grant or deny temporary immunity from arrest, prosecution, forfeiture or confiscation of property or the deprivation of Rights and/or privileges to any complainant or defendant, except in cases of: conviction for violent felony involving actual injury to another person; or conviction of an act of fraud, theft or property damage, exceeding five-thousand dollars ($5,000). Any complainant who files a complaint with the IJAC may petition for such relief. Temporary immunity may be granted to a complainant after the IJAC reviews the case and determines by simple majority vote that there is probable cause to believe the complainant's conviction, forfeiture, confiscation or deprivation of Rights or privileges resulted from judicial misconduct or abuse of authority as documented in complainant's complaint. Defendant judicial officers may also petition for and be granted such relief after the IJAC reviews the case and determines by simple majority vote that the complaint does not involve a violent felony involving actual injury to another person; or a felony act of fraud, theft or property damage, exceeding five-thousand dollars ($5,000) and substantial irreparable harm to the judicial officer would result if the relief were not granted. Such temporary immunity may be granted while the case before the IJAC is pending and during any subsequent civil or criminal case related directly thereto.

The IJAC is empowered to grant or deny temporary immunity from arrest to any fugitive who is scheduled to appear before the IJAC. Said immunity shall consist of a period of at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled appearance and ending not less than 24 hours upon conclusion of the IJAC hearing.

Section 2546. EXECUTION AND ENFORCEMENT. An Order for investigation, compliance, discipline or removal from office concerning any judicial officer, duly executed by the IJAC and served, shall be enforced immediately and with the assistance of local law enforcement if necessary. The Sheriff or other local law enforcement of the county where said judicial officer presides, shall enforce the Order, when necessary, according to the specific terms therein, which may include escorting the individual (judicial officer) from the court or other official property. Any judicial officer refusing to comply with the order of the IJAC accordingly, may also be charged with impersonating a judicial officer, trespassing and/or any other charges deemed appropriate.

Section 2547. JURISDICTION TO CONSIDER FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS. The IJAC shall have original jurisdiction, concurrent with the Idaho Supreme and District Courts, to consider petitions for writs of habeas corpus, and may grant and/or order relief under the provisions of Title 19, Chapter 42, Idaho Code (Idaho Habeas Corpus And Institutional Litigation Procedures Act).

Section 2548. CHALLENGES TO THIS ACT. To prevent conflicts of interest with challenges to this Act, no judicial officer brought under the jurisdiction of the IJAC by a complaint filed therewith, shall have jurisdiction to sit in judgment of any challenge to this Act. Any adjudication, by a judicial officer who is a party to an action pending before the IJAC or a subsequent pending civil or criminal proceeding authorized to proceed by the IJAC, which seeks to modify or annul any portion of this Act shall be null and void for all purposes and shall be considered grounds for bringing a complaint of a judicial act committed without jurisdiction, by any adversely affected party. All challenges to this Act shall be tried by a jury in a court of competent jurisdiction and shall not be tried by any bench trial before a judge or panel of judges or justices.

Section 2549. PREEMINENCE. Preeminence shall be given to this Act, as an Initiative of the people of Idaho, exercising their sovereign authority in any conflict with Idaho statute, case law, or doctrine(s). Any Idaho law found inconsistent with or contrary to this Act shall be and is hereby deemed void to the extent that said law is inconsistent with or contrary to this Act. This Act shall be subject to amendment or repeal only by an Initiative passed by the People of Idaho, or after proposed legislative amendment(s) or repeal(s) have been approved by a vote of the People, except as otherwise provided herein.

Section 2550. SEVERANCE. Should any part of this Act be determined unconstitutional, the remainder shall remain in full force and effect as though no challenge thereto existed.

Section 2551. REPEAL OF JUDGES' RETIREMENT COMPENSATION FROM FEES IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND APPEALS. Title 1, Chapter 20, Section 2003, of Idaho Code, concerning filing fees collected and/or added to the judges retirement fund from fees collected in civil actions and appeals, is hereby repealed as unconstitutional, in that it institutes a private benefit program for judges from public moneys, which is prohibited by Article VII, Section 10 of the Idaho Constitution, and, in that it infringes upon the people's right to justice without sale, denial or prejudice as declared by Article I, Section 18 of the Idaho Constitution. The Idaho people, in the exercise of their sovereign authority, hereby prohibit the Idaho Legislature from repealing the people's repeal of Title 1, Chapter 20, Section 2003, of Idaho Code or passing substantially similar legislation on this subject in the future.
