PRESS RELEASE

Secretary of State, Ben Ysursa, reminded voters that the last day to submit an application for a mail-in absentee ballot is this Wednesday, October 29th and that the last day for early voting is this Friday, October 31st.

Voters have until 5pm tomorrow to request a mail-in absentee ballot from their County Clerk so that a ballot can be mailed to the voter and returned to the county by 8pm on Election Day, Tuesday, November 4th.

Applicants must be registered in Idaho and submit a written request with their name, residence address and signature. Application forms are available from the county clerk's offices or online at idahovotes.gov.

Friday, October 31st is the last day for early voting. Contact your county clerk for the early voting location in your county.

Voters can look up their polling place location and get answers to their voting questions, including the personal identification requirement and acceptable forms of identification, online at idahovotes.gov.

Secretary Ysursa said, "The last day for absentee ballot requests is Wednesday and early voting closes Friday. I encourage all voters to participate in the coming general election either by absentee voting or by voting at their polling place next Tuesday, November 4th. Participation is the essence of democracy and every vote counts in Idaho."
