Electronic Poll Book Certification Hearing

The office of the Secretary of State will examine the Every One Counts electronic poll book for possible certification for use in Idaho elections on Friday, June 17. The public examination will begin at 9am in the J.R. Williams Building East conference room, 700 West State, Boise Idaho.

The use of electronic poll books to check in voters at the polls after certification by the Secretary of State was authorized by the Idaho legislature in 2015. I.C. 34-1106A
