Election Day Logistics and Information

Boise, Idaho – Idaho Secretary of State Lawrence Denney reminds the media what our office can provide on Election Day:

Election Results and Updates

Voters and members of the media will be able to follow election results on our website at <https://sos.idaho.gov/elect/results/2018/General/ENR/index.html>. Unofficial results will be posted beginning at 9 p.m. MST with updates being posted throughout the evening. Users will be able to track statewide voting totals or view results by district or county.

Election Day Interviews and Media Inquires

Our communications team is our primary point of contact for members of the media. Press inquiries should be directed to Kristie Winslow, communications coordinator, at Kristie.Winslow@sos.idaho.gov. We are aware reporters face tight deadlines during elections. To help expedite your request, please include your name and affiliation, story topic and deadline, a telephone number where you may be reached, and any other details pertinent to the request.

Polling Place Filming Requests

Coordinate all polling place photo/filming with the local county clerk's office prior to arrival. Contact information for each county clerk is available on IdahoVotes.gov.

Resources

Many resources are available online at sos.idaho.gov and IdahoVotes.gov including historical election registration and turnout data, voter registration totals, identification requirements, and a polling place locator. Voters can also check to see if the county has received their absentee ballot.
