

IDAHO
SECRETARY OF STATE
LAWRENCE DENNEY

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: April 19, 2019

Information Contact: Kristie Winslow, Communications Coordinator, (208) 332-2818

Electronic Poll Book Certification Hearing Set for Tuesday, April 23

Boise, Idaho – Idaho Secretary of State Lawrence Denney announced an e-poll book certification hearing for Tenex's Precinct Central is set for 10 a.m.–noon Tuesday, April 23 in Boise.

The public demonstration and certification hearing will take place at the Idaho Capitol Building, 700 W. Jefferson St., Room WW17, Boise, Idaho. The public is invited to attend and participate in the hearing process.

"This demonstration gives Idaho voters an opportunity to learn about this potential voting system option," said Secretary Denney. "We are pleased to offer an additional choice to county election officials as part of our current undertaking to improve our critical election infrastructure."

Precinct Central is an electronic poll book, a device designed to ensure efficiency and accuracy during the voter check-in process at the polls. This device has been certified by National Testing Systems (NTS) and evaluated by NAD Security. Pursuant to Idaho Code §34-2409, the Idaho Secretary of State must certify voting systems before they can be used in Idaho.

Attendees with disabilities who need a reasonable accommodation to participate can contact the Elections Division at (208) 334-2852. To access the Idaho Relay Service for the deaf and hard of hearing, dial 711.

###

ABOUT LAWRENCE DENNEY

Lawrence Denney has served the people of Idaho since 1990. His public service began as a representative in District 13 and, following redistricting, then became a representative in District 9 until 2014. During this time, Denney served two terms as Majority Leader and three terms as Speaker of the House before successfully running for state office as Idaho's Secretary of State. He is currently in the first year of his second term as Secretary of State.

---end---

