West Virginia Secretary of State Mac Warner Presents on Foreign Influence on American Elections

Boise, Idaho – Secretary of State Lawrence Denney will host visiting Secretary of State Mac Warner, who will present on Foreign Influence on American Elections. Secretary Warner is recognized nationally as a leader in election cybersecurity, with his work being featured by national media outlets including NPR, CNN, New York Times, Fox News, HBO News, and Snapchat. He aims to educate citizens, voters, and elections officials in ways to be more vigilant when it comes to information they see on social media.

This presentation reflects Secretary Denney's continued commitment to educate and inform Idahoans regarding best practices in fighting misinformation. "Effectively fighting misinformation continues to be a priority, and we're excited to have the opportunity to share Secretary Warner's knowledge and expertise."

Following the presentation, both Secretary Warner and Secretary Denney will be available for questions.
