United States Senator

Larry E. Craig

Larry Craig is serving his third term as a United States Senator from Idaho. Senator Craig serves as Chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, the committee is responsible for developing policy positions for Senate Republicans. Other Republican Policy Committee duties include overseeing research, sponsoring issue forums and helping the Majority Leader operate the Senate. Senator Craig served previously as chairman of the Steering Committee, a legislative "think tank" and action group for Senate conservatives. Senator Craig has been recognized by national groups including Citizens for a Sound Economy, Citizens Against Government Waste, Watchdogs of the Treasury and the National Taxpayers Union Foundation. With his appointment to the Senate Appropriations Committee, Senator Craig oversees funding on the following subcommittees: Homeland Security; Energy and Water Development; Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education; Military Construction; VA, HUD and Independent Agencies; and Agriculture, Rural Development, and Related Agencies. Senator Craig is the Chairman of the Senate Special Committee on Aging and a member of the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, where he is the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Forests and Public Land Management, and a member of the Subcommittee on Energy Research, Development, Production and Regulation, and the Subcommittee on Water and Power. He is also a member of the Veterans' Affairs Committee and the Judiciary Committee where he is a member of the Subcommittees on Immigration; Courts; and Constitution. Senator Craig sits on the following caucuses: Air Force, Diabetes, Education Advisory Committee to the National Youth Leadership Conference, Big Brothers Big Sisters Foundation in the National Capitol, WTO for Farmers and Ranchers, National Congressional Award Board of Directors, Idaho Safe Kids Coalition (Honorary Co-Chair), National Committee for Adoption, and the Western States Senate Coalition. The Idaho lawmaker is on the Board of Directors of the National Rifle Association and is Senate Co-Chairman of the Congressional Coalition on Adoption. He also co-founded and co-chairs the Congressional Property Rights Coalition. Senator Craig was born on the family ranch, which was homesteaded in 1899 by his grandfather. He later served as the Idaho State President and National Vice President of the Future Farmers of America. After graduating from the University of Idaho, where he served as Student Body President and was a member of Delta Chi fraternity, he pursued graduate studies before returning to the family ranching business in 1971. In 1974, Payette and Washington counties sent Senator Craig to the Idaho State Senate, where he served three terms before winning the 1980 race for the U.S. Congress from Idaho's First Congressional District. He was reelected four times before winning the U.S. Senate election in 1990 and was reelected to the Senate in 1996 and 2002. He is married to the former Suzanne Thompson. They have three children: two sons, Mike and Jay; a daughter, Shae and five grandchildren.

U.S. Congressman First District C.L. "Butch" Otter

Congressman Otter was re-elected to a second term in Congress on November 5, 2002. He serves on the House Committee on Energy and Commerce, with assignments on the Subcommittee on Environment and Hazardous Materials. In addition, Congressman Otter is vice chairman of the House Western Caucus and works with House leadership as an Assistant Majority Whip. Butch Otter was born in Caldwell, Idaho on May 3, 1942. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the College of Idaho (now Albertson College of Idaho) in 1967 and served honorably in the Idaho Army National Guard's 116th Armored Cavalry from 1968 to 1973.

He attended Armored Intelligence and Reconnaissance School at Fort Knox, Kentucky in 1968. Otter was also awarded an Honorary Doctorate from Mindanao State University in the Philippines. In 1972 the people of Canyon County sent Otter to the Idaho House of Representatives, where he served two terms. Otter also served on the Republican Party Central Committee and was Chairman of the Canyon County Republican Party. On January 3, 2001, he stepped down from the office of Lieutenant Governor in his fourth term, having been elected more times and serving longer than any Lieutenant Governor in Idaho history. Professionally, Congressman Otter's business background includes membership on the Board of Directors of the J.R. Simplot Company. In addition, he served as Director of the Food Products Division, President of Simplot Livestock, and President of Simplot International. Otter retired in 1993 after thirty years with the company. He has also been a member of the Board of Directors of the Kyn-Ten Oil Drilling Company. Congressman Otter has formerly served as a member of President Ronald Reagan's Task Force on International Private Enterprise, the World Bank's Agricultural Advisory Committee, and the Center for International Private Enterprise. He has also been a member of the Idaho Association of Commerce and Industry, the Idaho Young President's Organization, the Pacific Northwest Waterways Association, Northwest Food Producers, and the Board of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame. Currently, Otter is a member of the Regional Advisory Board for the Museum of the Rockies, the Idaho International Trade Council, and the Elks Club. U.S. Congressman
Second District
Michael Simpson

Michael (Mike) K. Simpson is serving his third term in the House of Representatives for Idaho's Second Congressional District. Mike was appointed to the House Appropriations Committee in 2003. He is the first House member from Idaho to serve on the Appropriations Committee in more than 40 years. Simpson's Appropriations Subcommittee assignments reflect Idaho's diverse economy and concerns. Mike is on three subcommittees: Energy and Water Development; Veterans Affairs, Housing and Urban Development, and Independent Agencies; and Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education.

These three subcommittees have jurisdiction over some of Idaho's most important institutions and services, including the INEEL, education, healthcare, veterans, water development, and the environment. During his first term, Simpson helped establish a bipartisan congressional caucus to talk about the needs of farmers and ranchers in the World Trade Organization. Simpson co-chaired the 60-member caucus and attended the WTO meetings to ensure agriculture needs were addressed. Simpson has become one of the House's leading advocates for a new energy policy and a renewed commitment to research and development of improved nuclear energy technologies. He is a Member of the House Nuclear Cleanup Caucus and supports increased use of renewable and alternative energy sources as a means of reducing our reliance on foreign oil. His political career began in 1980, when he was elected to the Blackfoot City Council. In 1984, he was elected to the Idaho Legislature where he served until 1998. His positions included Majority Caucus Chairman and Assistant Majority Leader in the Idaho House of Representatives, along with Speaker of the House from 1992 to 1998. Mike is a member of the Idaho Republican Party Hall of Fame. Simpson was born in Burley, Idaho on September 8, 1950, and raised in Blackfoot where he spent his summers moving irrigation pipe. He graduated from Utah State University and Washington University School of Dental Medicine in St. Louis, Missouri. After graduation, he joined his father and uncle at the family dental practice in Blackfoot. Mike is an avid golfer, sporting a handicap of six. He is a fervent reader and enjoys painting outdoor and nature scenes using graphite pencil, watercolors and oils. He has been married to his wife Kathy for 32 years.
