Request for Will Registry Information – Form WR 2

Idaho Code § 15-2-1001 provides that only "interested persons" or their attorneys may have access to will registry information relating to a given decedent. The definition of "interested person" is found in Idaho Code § 15-1-201(25), the text of which is found below.

Because of this requirement, the Secretary of State's Office will accept only written and signed inquiries relating to the will registry. These inquiries may be delivered in person, by mail, or by facsimile. Individual "interested persons" or their attorneys should complete and submit this form in order to request information.
